

STUDENT ART SHOW

Use Your CREATIVE ENERGY and share your

WHO: All CKMS Students are Welcome to Create

WHAT: 8.5" x 11" (max.) 2-Dimensional Piece of your original artwork that relates to a favorite author or book.

(You decide on the style, use: pen, pencil, charcoal, paints, or...?)

Ideas: Draw an alternate book cover for your favorite novel; draw a 'better' ending to a chapter; show us your vision of a favorite scene or character in a novel; create your own "Far Side" comic, or Calvin and Hobbes strip; paint the beginning scene of your favorite author's next new book; or, . . . ?

(BEWARE OF "SPOILERS" - let's try not to 'give away the ending' of The Lightning Thief, Twilight, or any other favorites.)

More about WHAT: Write the following on the back of your piece:

- o your name
- o grade level
- o the piece of literature/author that inspired your creation

WHERE: Submit to Ms. Lagace, Room 102

WHEN: Submissions Due by Mon., June 1, 2009 (2:30pm)

HOW: Tap into your creative side & honor your favorite book

WHY: Because it's fun to share your artistic side & we want to see your perspective on the literature that keeps you on the edge of your seat.

Prizes, too!

4 Winners* of $10 to use for Books
at the CKMS Book Fair (June 8th-12th, 2009)

*Winners will be drawn randomly from the names of all participating artists and announced Monday morning, 6/8.

Artwork will be displayed in the halls and in the library during the Book Fair, June 8th-June 12th

Tell your family to check out the art when they come to the Book Fair and/or the Band Concert on Tues., 6/9!